

From: rbrakes@mac.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/26/02 2:00pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

From my reading of the settlement, I do not see justice at all. It sounds to me as if Microsoft is being rewarded rather than punished and nothing is being done to prevent their unscrupulous business practices.

As a software developer myself for over 20 years, I have found Microsoft to be nothing but an impediment by purposely destroying existing standards and thereby slowing new innovation.

Please consider a punishment more suiting than a simple slap on the wrist as is currently proposed.